BH and I have not yet had conversation about the content of these but i have ideas on further amendmenets and questions, but the Review BH document does have some more correct info. they both need to be compared for content, i dont knw why there are always two reports....

in the care and support one at Budget and Fundung there is an indicative budget of £623.83 on needs = £32438.99 but the 'cost of ongoing weekly support' figure to be provided is £435.68 ie 30 hrs @£14..52/hr = £62.24 per day * 365 = £22,717.6 over 365 days but then the paperwork says £22,888.53 is the personal budget plus 5% contingency = £24.032.96pa / 365 = 65.8437/day

1 where does the 5% contingency figure come from?

if 5% of 14.52/hr = £0.726 = £14.52 plus contingency = £15.246 per hour so why isnt the weekly amount 30hr at £15.246 = £457.38 per week so why is the weekly support figure £435.68 and how does that relate to the 'indicative budget' of £623.83?

Does the indicative budget include what they calculate as charges?
ie 32438 - 24032 = 8,406 are they suggesting that her contributions are £8406 over the year?
8406 / 52 weeks = £161.65 perweek? surely not
